Eminence, a speaker company known for crafting iconic bass speakers in rock 'n' roll, and Orange, a British amp company celebrated for exceptional bass cabinets, present the Kristian Kohle Eminence/Orange Bass Guitar Cabinet Impulse Response Pack available at eminence-digital.com. This groundbreaking collaboration is a must-have for serious bassists and producers seeking to harness the thunderous power of their bass. Watch Kristian demonstrate the new IR at youtu.be/8\_frCffhJ7Q.

Crafted by esteemed German rock and metal producer Kristian Kohle, whose name resounds across the industry for his remarkable productions spanning various metal genres, this pack sets a new standard in quality and tonal versatility. Kohle, renowned for releasing industry-standard impulse response packs, has meticulously created mix-ready IRs featuring three distinct Orange cabinets: the aggressive 4x10", the thundering 8x10", and the rumbling 1x15".

Designed with both bassists and producers in mind, the Kristian Kohle Eminence /Orange Bass Guitar Cabinet Impulse Response Pack empowers musicians to explore an expansive tonal range, from earth-shaking growling rock tones to the most aggressive and crushing metal bass sounds. The pack also includes a stereo impulse response of Kristian Kohle's renowned live room, aptly named the "Room of Boom." By loading this exceptional IR into a reverb IR player, you can infuse your bass tone with a touch of room ambiance, providing your tracks a realistic and immersive feel.

Whether you're a seasoned bassist, a dedicated producer, or an aspiring musician, the Eminence/Orange Bass Guitar Cabinet Impulse Response Pack offers an array of tonal options to ensure your bass track seamlessly fits into the mix.
